ABOUT ME

Howdy, y'all! My name is ali moghrbi, and I am from palestine gaza. I got my start as a graphic designer by creating a logo for my dad's barbeque joint. As locals began to see my work, I began designing materials for everything from western wear to crawdads on a stick. Today, I am open to all kinds of design work, although I am always drawn to passion projects that let me go back to my Texan roots.
